

STUDENT MEMBER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Membership eligibility

Student membership is available to individuals currently studying full time for a risk management or risk-related degree and not employed by a public service organisation. Acceptance of student membership is at the discretion of ALARM.

Proof of eligibility for student membership

We require a letter from your course tutor indicating dates of study or relevant identification such as a student ID card. Website access will be granted upon receipt of this evidence.

Membership period

The membership will remain active during your study and a renewal day will be determined by your course end date.

ALARM event cancellation policy

ALARM incurs substantial charges in relation to such events including, amongst others, venue charges, lunch and refreshment charges, administrative and management costs etc. If a member is unable to attend a complimentary event (aside from the Conference, see Conference cancellation policy below) they should provide the ALARM Office with written notice that they are unable to attend not less than seven days before the event. If a member fails to give such written notice ALARM will invoice the member the sum of £75 for one day seminars and £100 for ALARM courses to cover, in part, the wasted expenses incurred by ALARM.

Where there is a charge for attendance, payment must be made in advance and no refund will be issued for non-attendance or cancellation. By requesting a place at an event, you agree to the terms and conditions set out above.

Conference

Attendance at Conference as a delegate or dinner guest is discounted for student members. Accommodation is not included. Prebooking is essential and a confirmation of your booking will be sent in return and must be received to secure a place. ALARM takes no responsibility for sessions that are fully booked, bookings are administered on a first come first served basis and early booking is advised to avoid disappointment.

Conference cancellation policy

Cancellations must be received in writing ten days before the event, and a receipt of confirmation must be obtained. Cancellations for dinner, delegate places or non-attendance outside of this time will incur a fee of £150.
